RE: Bluegrass Kennels

I wanted to take a moment to summarize the wonderful experience that I had doing business with Kay and Gary from Bluegrass Kennels.

In 2006, I was looking for a female French Bulldog and had stumbled across the Bluegrass Kennels website while doing my research. I was looking for a “show quality pet”, and was impressed with the fact that they had photos and information on all of their male and female breeding stock. I began corresponding with Kay and Gary via email and telephone and they were more than happy to answer any of the questions that I had. I finally sent my $500 deposit and waited for the litter that I had selected to be born.

When the puppies were born, Kay and Gary emailed me photos of the litter, and posted them on the website. I eventually chose my puppy, and they emailed me photos weekly to show me how she was progressing. They also mailed to me a schedule of what vaccinations my puppy would have when I received her, and a schedule of which ones were due. I paid the balance due, and I picked up “Daisy” at the airport when she was about 9 weeks old. She’s perfect, and I could not be more pleased with the experience that I had with Bluegrass Kennels. Although I never met Kay and Gary in person, I still correspond with them regularly. They even send holiday cards and treats to Daisy every year.

If you are looking for a French Bulldog, I highly recommend doing business with Bluegrass Kennels.

Sincerely,
